CALL FOR PAPERS

The SECOND ANNUAL CONSULTATION ON BLACK WORSHIP will be sponsored by the Interdenominational Theological Center on November 13-15, 1986. The intent of the Consultation is to provide a forum for the discussion of Black Worship, a discussion directed toward its deeper understanding and appreciation.

The Editors of the Journal of the Interdenominational Theological Center (JITC) are now planning a special volume devoted to the publication of papers generated for this Consultation, similar to the present Black Worship issue, Volume 13:2.

In an effort to achieve an even broader range of participation, JITC Editors are issuing a general call for papers on various aspects of Black Worship for consideration and possible publication in the abovementioned volume.

If you are currently at work in the general area of Black Worship, we urge you to allow us the privilege of considering your work for possible publication.
