

JOURNAL OF THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL
THEOLOGICAL CENTER

Volume 52

Spring 2023

Harold Bennett, PhD, Morehouse, Atlanta, GA
Guest Editor

Temba L.J. Mafico
Editor

Editorial Board

Richard Nysse, Luther Seminary, MN, Emeritus
Hugh Page, University of Notre Dame, IN
Musa Dube, Candler School of Theology, Atl., GA

A Publication of
The ITC Press
Atlanta, Georgia 30314

Journal of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ISSN 50092-6558) is published semiannually.

JITC is a journal of the Interdenominational Theological Center. It publishes peer-reviewed research articles written primarily, but not exclusively, from an Afro-centric perspective of the Bible and related disciplines. All contributions are referred to recognized scholars who are specialized in the particular discipline in which the article is written.

Please note: ITC is halting the publication of the Journal for the time being. No articles will be accepted until further notice.

The Editor JITC
Interdenominational Theological Center
700 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive
Atlanta, GA 30314
United States of America

(404) 527-7727

Email: journaleditor@itc.edu

Subscriptions should be sent to the Editor at the above address.

Copyright
The Interdenominational Theological Center
(All Rights Reserved)

Table of Contents

Editorial

Dr. Harold V. Bennett iii

Part One

Prophesy Deliverance! At the House of the Lord
Pentecostal Church in Brooklyn

Albert G. Miller 1

Why Propheying Deliverance Still Matters: Black
Religion, Black Consciousness and the Pentecostal
Social Imaginary

Cheryl J. Sanders 29

When Marx Caught the Holy Ghost: Prophecy
Deliverance and the Making of a Black
Pentecostal Liberation Theology

Osagyefo Uhuru Sekou 76

Is there a word from the Lord? Black Revolutionary
Christianity, Black Pentecostalism, and Black Self-Determination

Dara Coleby Delgado 123

If You Live Right, Heaven Belongs to You – Radical
Historicism, Prophetic Pragmatism, and Melancholic
Utopianism in Cornel West and Pentecostalism

Marlon Millner 184

Editorial

Response from Dr. Cornel West to Prophecy
Deliverance

235