A Maroon Mind

Barrett Johnson'23

Found in the beginning of time, exists a quantum force of Divine Source.

Located within, celestial bodies embody the brilliance of Truth through thoughts motivated by contemplations of consciousness.

Illuminated by love and expressed through the flow of peace, a Supreme light shines its rays on the human cause to embrace the fluidity of Life.

It is the pace of fortitude that crimson bricks build the corporate sky of existence,

What a sight to behold, a witness of abundance and creativity.

Out of darkness it appears, forecasting feelings of gladness and bewilderment.

Now is the time, for a Maroon Mind.

polar opposite to the mundane.
